AWARD

This is an application under section 33C(2) of the I.D.A., 1947, in short the Act, moved by the above applicants against the above opponent, claiming from the latter Rs. 300/-, Rs. 157-50, Rs. 202-50, Rs. 120/-, Rs. 270/- and Rs. 120/- for 40, 21, 27, 16, 36, 16 days resply,, at the rate of Rs. 7-50 per day.

2. It is applicants' case that they are working for the last 4-5 years for the opponent at Mapusa, which is a leather industry manufacturing shoes and slippers. On 31-3-1977, the employer entered into an agreement with the workers' Union, the clause 2 of which reads as follows:

"Both the parties agree that the workmen shall be paid wages at the rate of Rs. 7-50 (Rupees Seven and paise fifty only) as minimum guaranteed wage if no regular work is provided to such workmen by the employer."

In violation of the terms of the said settlement, the employer has either denied work to his employees or given them intricate work which takes them more than 1 day to complete. The employer has denied the minimum guaranteed wage to the employees on the days mentioned in the annexure.

- 3. The employer, in its written statement, has stated that the applicants' claim cannot be entertained under the recovery proceedings contemplated by section 33C(2) of the Act, as the same is based on a substansive industrial dispute and so it is to be adjudicated under the provisions of Section 10(1)(d) of the Act. It is also not a claim for computation of benefits arising out of settlement; it may fall under calculation. It is further submitted that the applicants have furnished wrong information to the court since some of the dates mentioned in the annexure on which the benefit is sought to be claimed are dates on which the applicants were paid their wages in accordance with the settlement dated 31-3-1977; on some of the dates the applicants have not at all reported for work for reasons best known to them and, on some of the dates, the applicants have not done the required number of units entitling them to the payment of Rs. 7-50, despite the fact that the work was provided to them and in the past they had given the requisite number of units for the amount of Rs. 7-50. It is further submitted that the settlement dated 31-3-1977 did not create a blanket imposition of liability on the employer to warrant minimum guaranteed wage of Rs. 7-50 per worker, per day. The obligation of the employer to pay the minimum guaranteed wages flows only in the event of failure on the part of the employer to provide sufficient work on the days the applicants reported for work.
  - 4. It appears from the roznama that no issues were framed in this case and the matter was directly kept for evidence. On behalf of the applicants, evidence of the applicant Eshwant Malgaonkar alone was recorded and, on behalf of the employer, evidence of Shri Gurudas Malgaonkar, one of the partners of the employer, was recorded.
  - 5. At the time of the evidence of the employer as well as at the time of arguments, the applicants or their representative did not remain present and so the employer was not cross examined at all and also no arguments were advanced on behalf of the applicants.
  - 6. Out of the six applicants, only applicant No. 1, Eshwant has given evidence and this limited to his application only. There is no evidence at all regarding the other applicants and, therefore, their case is liable to be dismissed, on this ground alone.
  - 7. As per the details given by the applicant Eshwant, he was not paid of his salary on 4th, 5th, 10th, 25th and 26th of April, 1977, 6th, 7th, 9th 10th, 11th, 12th, 14th, 15th, 17th, 18th, 21st, 22nd, 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th May 1977, 1st, 5th, 10th, 12th, 13th, 26th, 29th June 1977, 2nd, 8th, 10th, 12th, 17th, 18th, 22nd and 23rd July 1977 and 7th, 12th and 13th August, 1977, at the rate of Rs. 7-50 per day. However, in his cross, the applicant has admitted that, as per the registers produced by the opponent, applicant's signatures appear on 4th April, 7th, 9th, 18th and 21st May, 5th, 12th and 13th June and 8th of July, showing that the applicant was paid of his salary on the said days. Regarding the other days, it is opponent's contention that the applicant either did not report for duty or refused to work and so no payment was to be made to him, which suggestion is denied by the applicant, who also alleges that he was present but no work was given to him.
  - 8. The employer, in its statement, has stated that in terms of the settlement entered into between the employer and the workers Union, the minimum wage of Rs. 7-50 was to be paid to the workers in case the employer was not in a position to provide work for the workers on a particular day. The workers would not be entitled to such salary incase they failed to come to work or refused to work.

This employer's statement has gone unchallenged for want of cross examination.

It has been further stated by the employer that, on some occasions, the workers have refused to work when a new pattern of shoes has been given to them, which statement has also gone unchallenged for want of cross examination.

9. The above evidence shows that some of the days given by the applicant as of non payment of his salary are not correct because, as per the register produced by the employer, the applicant was paid of his work on the said days. Regarding the other days, I am led to believe the employer's contention that on those days either the workman did not report for work or refused to work and, hence, he could not expect the employers to pay him on those days.

10. In view of what has been stated above, I pass the following order:

ORDER

The applicants have not proved that they are entitled to the amounts claimed in the amexure to their application and, hence, I dismiss the said application. In the circumstances of the case, I shall make no order as to costs.

AWARD

This is a reference made to this Tribunal by the Govt. of Goa, Daman and Diu, by its order No. 28/24/82-ILD dated 15th September, 1982. The schedule annexed to the order of reference reads as follows:

"Whether the action of the employer of M/s. Tangal Silk Mills Limited, Daman in retrenching the following six workmen (weavers) with effect from 13-5-1982 is lawful and justified;

Sl. No.	Names of the employees and Designation
1.	Shri Bhanabhai Ukadhbai — Weaver
2	Shri Madhubhai Kikabhai — Weaver
3.	Shri Chimanbhai Manchhubhai — Weaver
4.	Shri Semanbhai Khalpabhai — Weaver
5.	Shri Uttambhai Chhetubhai — Weaver
6.	Shri Ramanbhai Kikubhai — Weaver"

2. Notice was issued to the workman's Union and to the employer to file their statement of claim and written statement respectively, but the Union, although duly served, failed to remain present and also to file its statement of claim. The employer, on its side, filed its written statement, in which it is stated as follows:

The employer is a Private Limited Company manufacturing Grey Art Silk Cloth, which is purchased by traders of other Mills for preparing sarees after processing; the product manufactured by the company has no direct consumers. For manufacturing Grey Art Silk Cloth the company requires special quality of Cotton Yarn and Viscose which is manufactured by other mills in the country. The company has 125 employees. When in January 1982, there was a general strike in Bombay Textile Mills it became difficult for the company to secure cotton yarn and Viscose in desired quality and quantity at economic prices; as a result, the company was compelled to lay off some workers for 6 days from 18th to 22nd January 1982. Again in February 1982, on 4th, 5th, 17th and 18th all the employees were laid off. Due to acute shortage of raw materials and uncertain demand of the product manufactured, the company was compelled to close down the working of the 3rd shift and; on 22-3-1982, 8 junior weavers were retrenched; on March 26th, all the twisters were laid off and again on 29th and 30th March 1982 all the weavers, bobbin fillers, jobbers and helpers were laid off. Out of 8 retrenched workers, two have accepted the payment of their dues but the other 6, which are covered under this order of reference, did not accept their payment, which was tendered to them at the time of retrenchment and even the money orders sent were returned unaccepted. The workers of the mill went on strike from 12-4-1982 demanding that the retrenched employees be taken back. Due to the intervention of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, the strike ended on 26-4-1982 and a settlement was arrived at to postpone the effect of retrenchment and consider the workers as laid off in accordance with section 25(c) of the I. D. A., w. e. f. 22-3-1982. At the time of this settlement it was expected that the Bombay Textile strike would end soon and normalcy would be restored with availability of raw material and sale of production. However, there was no improvement in the situation and the company was compelled to effect retrenchment of employees from 13-5-1982, by tendering their legal dues. On this issue again, all the workers of the mill went on strike from 8-6-1982 after receiving their wages of May 1982 on 7-6-1982; fresh intervention of the Labour Commissioner ended in failure. The Government then referred this matter to this Tribunal and on 18-9-1982 prohibited the continuance of the strike by the workers. Notices were issued by the company asking the workers. workmen to resume duties, but the workers did not resume. At present, except a few, the workers continue the illegal strike. By this prolonged strike, the Mill has incurred heavy losses and is on the verge of closure. It is submitted that the retrenchment of the six workers was inevitable, legal and justified.

- 3. The employer also led the evidence of the Director of the Mill, who, in his statement in open court, has confirmed the facts mentioned in the written statement and also produced the receipts of the Money Orders issued to the six workers and the calculations of their retrenchment compensation.
- 4. From the above evidence ex-parte led by the employer, I am satisfied that the retrenchment of the workers by the employer was bonafide and effected with due compliance of all the legal formalities. Hence, I answer to the order of reference as follows:

ORDER

The action of the employer, M/s. Tangal Silk Mills Limited, Daman, in retrenching the six workers whose names are given in the schedule w.e.f. 13-5-1982, is legal and justified. No order as to costs.
